Sagrada Família, Βαρκελώνη, Ισπανία

Sagrada Família is a large unfinished Roman Catholic temple in the Eixample district of Barcelona. It was designed by the Spanish architect Antoni Gaudí. Its construction began in 19 March 1882. Gaudí's work on the building is part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Five generations have watched the Temple progress in Barcelona. Today, after 139 years, the construction of the building still continues.

Moscow, Ρωσία

St. Basil's Cathedral is located on the famous Red Square and is undoubtedly one of the most characteristic buildings in Moscow. It is one of the most characteristic symbols of the Russian capital and of course one of the most important sights of Moscow.

The church with the onion-shaped domes is located opposite the Kremlin and is an Orthodox church of special value for both locals and foreigners. St. Basil's Cathedral is perhaps the most recognizable Russian building in the world.

Κολοσσαίο, Piazza del Colosseo, Ρώμη, Ιταλία

The Colosseum is an oval amphitheatre in the centre of the city of Rome in Italy and the largest ancient amphitheater ever built. It could hold an estimated 50,000 to 80,000 spectators and it was used for gladiatorial contests and public spectacles. Although substantially ruined because of earthquakes, the Colosseum is still an iconic symbol of Imperial Rome and was listed as one of the New 7 Wonders of the World.
