

Answer the following questions, after visiting the following short films related to incidents of gender-based violence.

1. Describe your feelings while watching these short films.

---

---

---

2. What types of violence did the victims face (eg threats, physical violence, etc.)?

---

---

---

---

3. Why did they suffer these kinds of violent behaviour?

4. What assumptions do you make about the people who were abused? Do you think that the victims are responsible for what happened to them?

5. What were the perpetrators trying to achieve with their behaviour?

6. What might have prevented the victims from speaking or reacting?

7. If you were their friend how would you help them? What would you advise them to do?